DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-9, 21-26 and 28-30, drawn to a process (of generating electricity), classified in class 376, subclass 100.
 - II. Claims 10-20, 27 and 31, drawn to an apparatus (gas stream nuclear reactor), classified in class 376, subclass 383.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case, another materially different apparatus, such as an electrolytic cell producing nuclear fusion reactions, i.e., cold fusion, can practice the process as claimed. Alternatively, the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process, e.g., production of tritium or medical radioisotopes.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group II, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

2. Upon election of either invention I or II, Applicant is further required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect one of the following disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable (e.g., see claim 4). Currently, claim 1 is generic to Group I and no claim appears to be generic to Group II.

- A: Wherein the gas stream is air.
- B: Wherein the gas stream is a flue gas.

3. Upon election of either invention I or II, Applicant is further required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect one of the following disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable (e.g., see claims 5 and 15). Currently, claim 1 is generic to Group I and no claim appears to be generic to Group II.

- C: Wherein the means to heat the gas is a flame generator.
- D: Wherein the means to heat the gas is a laser beam.

Art Unit: 3663

- E: Wherein the means to heat the gas is an electric arc.
- F: Wherein the means to heat the gas is a microwave generator

4. If invention I is elected, Applicant is further required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect one of the following disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable (e.g., see claim 22).

Currently, claim 1 is generic to Group I and no claim appears to be generic to Group II.

- G: Wherein the rapid cooling affects decomposition of NO_x .
- H: Wherein the rapid cooling affects decomposition of CO_2 .
- I: Wherein the rapid cooling affects decomposition of SO_x .

5. Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Rick Palabrica whose telephone number is 571-272-6880. The examiner can normally be reached on 6:30-5:00, Mon-Thurs.
